Rule of Practice No. 29, dated 28th December 1882.

In supersession of Criminal Circular letter No. 4, dated the 25th April 1878, and Criminal Rule of Practice No. 1 of the same date, the Acting Chief Judge directs that, under Section 293 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Calendars of trials, in the annexed form, shall be prepared by the Courts of Session and submitted to the Chief Judge at the close of each Session.

2. The Deputy Commissioners invested with special powers under Section 36 of the Code will transmit Calendars in the same form within 48 hours after the conclusion of the trial.

3. District Magistrates will send statements in the same form to the Courts of Session, and all other Magistrates will send statements in the same form to the Magistrate of the District to whom they are subordinate, within 24 hours after the close of the proceedings.

4. The statements shall be accompanied by a copy of the judgment or order in each case.

5. The several Courts to whom these statements and judgments are submitted will exercise great

* A copy of every order or of proceedings passed by a Court of Session upon appeal or upon review of a Magistrate's calendar, together with the order or calendar remitted upon, and in the case of an appeal, the grounds for confirming, reversing or modifying the sentence or order of the Magistrate, is to be submitted to the Judicial Commissioner's Court.

A copy of every order passed by the Magistracy under the Code of Criminal Procedure, or under Special or Local Acts and rules, in the exercise either of original or appellate jurisdiction, which determines or disposes of any matter sub judice, must be submitted within forty-eight hours to the appellate Court, to which the Magistrate is immediately subordinate, for revision, together with a clear statement of the substance of the complaint and evidence, and the grounds on which the order was made. If the order be passed by a Subordinate Magistrate, another copy of it and a copy of the statement must also be forwarded within the same time to the Magistrate of the District.

Similarly, copies of proceedings held by the Magistracy concerning the calendars of the Sub-Magistracy should be submitted to the Courts of Session.
